Dear mother:

The letter you wrote Saturday I recieved Monday noon pretty good time and was more than glad to hear from you. I never got the first letter you sent me, the one with Berthas letters but I got the other two all O.K.

You ask about my arm. The arm where I was vaccinated never got very sore (left arm) & the scar is about the size of the end of a lead pencil and there is a red spot about the size of a quarter.

The shot is about as bad as the vaccination. That is done just like they vaccinate a hog they paint it place on the right arm with Iodine, then take

He knew me but I had to study for a while before I could place him. We taken the final train together at Carmi, He has been here about 8 mo. and he likes it fine Has been in the army about 13 mo.

You ask me what we eat. I told you what my eating utensils were (Plate, Cup, Knife, fork & Spoon)

For supper we had Ice Tea, Hash, Peaches, Potatoes (in jacket) Cabbage and we very often have dried apples, Macaroni, Green Pea. Pudding Beans, Beef, Oatmeal Weiners (wienies) Coffee, And we always have pleanty of it too.

We just walk along the Kitchen and it was dished out to us as we pass then we go & eat where we want to & if we fail to get all we want the first time we can go again.

The Kitchen is in a big tent.

You ask about what we done,
